PLCA Privacy Policy

When you join the PLCA, we collect information (name, address, telephone, & email address) to enable us to send regular communications to you, usually Newsletters & Bulletins, Meeting minutes, Membership reminders, and from time to time, specific issue Special Bulletins. They are sent via email, to those that have provided those details; otherwise via post.

If you resign from the Association, all your details are removed from our member database, other than your name and date of resignation, as per the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012 (no. 20 of 2012) - Sect 56.

At no time will any personal information be disclosed to a third party without your specific consent, with the exception of the provisions of Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012 (no. 20 of 2012)# - Sect 57, 58 & 59 and Section 18, PLCA Constitution* - which state in part:

- The right of a member to inspect the (member) register at a reasonable time and free of charge;
- The restrictions on how a member may use the information viewed when they inspect the register;
- That a member may ask the Secretary to restrict the type of information available to only members of the committee (subject to the exception in para. (9))
